

I strongly urge the Commission not to make changes which will result in greater consolidation of our broadcast media. It is vital that the citizens of this United States have access to diverse opinions and full access to local news and events, covered by local broadcasters. I also urge repeal of any rulings previously enacted by the Commission which prevent the radio broadcasting industry from diverse expression and broadcasting local events by local media. In short, give the airways back to the American People.

Thank You